

Jesus Saves, Not the Law - Romans 8:1-8

---

Those who are in Christ are not condemned and are set free from the law of sin and death.

God has rescued the Christian from condemnation under the law through Jesus.

The result of being in Christ is that the Spirit enables us to fulfill the moral commands of God's law.

Questions for Discussion & Application

1. What questions do you have about today's passage?
2. If you are a Christian, how does it encourage you to be reminded that there is NO condemnation for you? Is there a sin from your past or a struggle with sin in your life currently that you need to be reminded of the truth that you are not condemned?
3. What has God done to rescue the Christian from being condemned under the law? (See Romans 8:3.)
4. According to verses 4-8, what will happen in the life of the one who is in Christ? What will happen in the life of the one who is still in the flesh?
5. What kinds of attitudes and behaviors characterize the person whose mind is set on the flesh and the person whose mind is set on the Spirit? (See Galatians 5:16-26.)
6. What is the evidence in your own life that you have been set free from the law of sin and death and have your mind set on the things of the Spirit?
